- Duration: 15 minutes per round

ROUND 1 – Brain Bid (Think Bid Win)

Description

- At the beginning of the event, each team will start with 100 points.
- A question will be displayed with a point value based on its difficulty level.
- Teams will bid on the question.
- The team that wins the bid gets the chance to answer the question.
- If the team answers correctly, they will earn the assigned points.
- If the answer is incorrect, the same points will be deducted from their total score.
- This process will continue for each question.
- The event will include shuffled topics to keep the game interesting.
- Each question will be unique.
- Some questions will include zoom-in or zoom-out images.
- Some will be reverse-order challenges where participants must identify something backward.
- There will also be puzzle-based questions.
- Memory-based questions will be included, where teams must recall positions or placements and identify the correct location.
- The team with the highest score at the end will move to the next round.

ROUND 2 – Pop and Reveal (Action guess Challenge)

Description

- A box will contain a total of 20 lots.
- Each team will consist of 2 members.
- One member from the team will pick a lot from the box.
- The selected member must perform the action written on the lot.
- The performer must not use any mouth movements doing so will lead to disqualification.
- The other team member will stand opposite and guess the action being performed.
- While guessing, the participant must continuously tap a balloon. If the balloon bursts or falls down, the team will be disqualified.
- The teammate must correctly guess the action within the given time limit.
- Teams that correctly identify the highest number of actions within the allotted time will qualify for the next round.

ROUND 3 – Dub and Laugh (Voice Over Challenge)

Description

- In the final round, teams will be shown a short muted video clip.
- Participants must create their own voice-over for the clip.
- The voice-over should be humorous and creative.
- The main goal is to make the audience laugh.
- Team members must maintain good coordination while performing.
- Teams will be judged based on creativity, timing, and entertainment value.
- This round aims to provide a lively and memorable conclusion to the event.
